

Achieving a qualitative level for Yemen in the basic Education Quality index to put Yemen in rank (90) among the countries of the world.

Reducing the illiteracy rate among the population to less than 20%.

5 Yemeni universities should be among the best universities in the Arab world.

Yemen's International Justice index should reach 60 of the world's countries.

Improving Yemen's sustainable development index from 45 to 60.

Improving the investment index to (130 of 190).

Achieving an annual real economic growth rate of at least (5%).

Reaching the top 100 economies globally.

Increasing the participation rate of women in the labor force to (30%) of the total labor force.

The level of citizen satisfaction for government services should be among the best (80) countries at the end of the period.

Improving Yemen's level of innovation to rank (95) among the countries of the world.

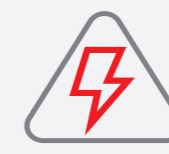

Raising the life rate at birth to 75 years.

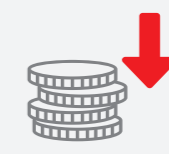

Rising Per Capita Gross Domestic Product (GDP) up to above ($2,000 per annum).

Placing Yemen in the International Competitiveness Index (100) among the countries of the world.

Increasing the rate of production of electricity from multiple sources at an annual rate of not less than 600 MW.

Reducing inflation to less than (5%).

Reducing the poverty rate of the population to less than 20 %.

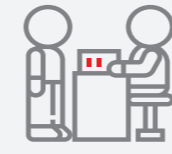

The rate of health insurance prevalence among the population should reach above (50%).

Improving the environmental performance index to rank (80) among the countries of the world.

Increasing the average number of residential units established annually during the period to (17500).

Reducing the unemployment rate to less than 10%.

Rising the ranking of Yemen in the Human Development Index to rank (120) among the countries of the world.

Accessing the rank of Yemen in the index of democracy and freedom and protection of citizens' rights to (98).

Achieving a position for Yemen within 70 countries in the institutional efficiency index.

Yemen's corruption perception index (CPI) should reach (100) among the countries of the world.

The main goals of the Yemeni National Vision

Graphic designed by:

www.yemenvision.gov.ye
www.iscyemen.org